Links and Resource Guides:

(This list of links is not exhaustive. There are many, many resources available at the library website – these are just a small sample of what we think you might need most frequently.)

- OneSearch Advanced Search
 - OneSearch is the Google of the library – it searches almost all of the library's electronic databases at once. The Advanced Search interface for OneSearch is the most powerful way to do research, with many options for saving articles, forming citations, filtering your search options to find exactly what you're looking for, and more.
- Subject-Specific Resources for Education
 - OneSearch too general for you? Explore the electronic resources that the library subscribes to that are geared specifically towards education.
- Library Virtual Reference Desk on Zoom
 - Have a quick question? Don't want to wait for an email? Drop in to the library's Zoom room during open hours and get help from a staff member live and "in person."
- Personal Librarians Canvas course
 - Tutorials and information about how to use the library.
- InterLibrary Loan
 - Find a book or journal article that you can't figure out how to get access to? Request it through InterLibrary Loan. This service is FREE to you.
- Off-Campus Access guide
 - Having trouble logging in to the library's online resources? This guide can help you troubleshoot the most common problems.
- Guide to the Research Process
 - Has it been years since you've written a research paper? Confused by citation formatting? We can help.
- Student Technology Help
 - Canvas? Panopto? Zoom? What is all this stuff? Help and contact information for all of Wilson's educational technology tools.
