

William Barr, speech at the University of Notre Dame Law School on October 21, 2019

1. On what grounds does William Barr think religion—specifically, the Judeo-Christian tradition—is necessary for morality? Explain his argument that secularism leads to immorality and societal decay.