UF All Access FAQ's:

- What is UF All Access?
 - Answer: UF All Access is our digital course materials program. Selected courses are available through this program to provide students with the lowest prices on their eBooks and courseware products (Access Codes). Students can choose to opt into these materials and be provided instant access to their codes for homework systems and/or access to a digital version of books. The charges will be billed to their student accounts, if you have Financial Aid available, it will automatically pay for these charges.
- I just added a UF All Access class today, but the UF All Access option isn't showing on Gator1. Why?
 - Answer: New classes usually take 24 hours to appear on the Gator1 Central page. If you need to opt into your materials immediately, you can email allaccess@bsd.ufl.edu with your UF ID number, Course Code (i.e. MAC 1105) & 5 digit class # (found on your schedule) and the UF All Access team will manually add you.
- I dropped the class. How do I get a refund?
 - Answer: Dropped classes are automatically refunded within the normal add/drop period. This usually takes place within 3 days of the class being removed from your schedule. If it's been longer than 5 days since you dropped the course, and you have not yet seen a refund on your student account, please email allaccess@bsd.ufl.edu with your UF ID number & Course Code.
- I'm having technical issues with my access code. How do I get assistance?
 - Answer: For technical issues related to accessing your courseware (homework components) you should contact or log a ticket with your correlating products technical support team.
