

Final Exam Study Guide
JSIS B 312 A – GWSS 390 D – CLIT 250 B
Autumn Quarter 2021

***Final in-class exam; NOT an open-book exam*****

Fri, Dec 17, 2021, 4:30 – 6:20 PM, SMI 221

The material you should review for your final exam includes the following:

NOV 23      Women’s honor, beauty and dowry: symbolic and real commodities in the modern Greek marriage market

- Excerpts of Theotokis’s “Honor and Money” translated in English by the instructor (Canvas)
- Dermitzakis 1998: 554-559 (Canvas)
- Beaton: 103-106 (Canvas)
- Powerpoint presentation (Canvas)

NOV 30      Dowries and the marriage market in modern Greece

- Lambiri-Dimaki 1985: 165-178 (Canvas)
- Franghiadis 1998: 187-192 (Canvas)
- Powerpoint presentation (Canvas)

DEC 2      Cash endowments in 19th-century Athens

- Cassia and Bada 1992: 80-103 (Canvas)
- Powerpoint presentation (Canvas)

DEC 7      Trousseaux in 19th-century Athens

- Cassia and Bada 1992: 103-135 (Canvas)
- Powerpoint presentation (Canvas)

DEC 9      From trousseaux to cash: changing attitudes towards women in 20th-century rural Greece

- du Boulay 1983: 243-270 (Canvas)
- Powerpoint presentation (Canvas)

In reviewing for your midterm, you should consider the following points:

- a. Focus on the major themes and ideas discussed in the assigned readings.

b. Focus on important terms which were repeatedly discussed in the class and which appear in the assigned readings.

c. You don't have to memorize specific dates or years but you should be able to place the events discussed in the readings against specific time periods, e.g., early nineteenth century or late eighteenth century.

d. The midterm will comprise the following three types of questions:

1. Questions requiring a short response answer (about 1-2 paragraphs)
2. Questions requiring the definition of specific terms
3. Questions requiring a longer answer (about 1-2 pages long)
4. Multiple choice questions

GOOD LUCK WITH YOUR REVIEW!