Instructor Contact Expectations: The best and fastest way to contact me is email. I will generally respond to your emails within 24 hours during weekdays only. During busy times of the semester, the response time may increase to 48 hours. On weekends, I will do my best to get back to you ASAP but I cannot guarantee an expeditious response.

Class opens: On the Friday prior to classes starting, May 20th, 2019, you will receive an email to your my.Cuesta.edu address providing you with log in procedures for Canvas, the learning management system (LMS) used to deliver course content. Once logged into Canvas you can select the option below which best suits your needs and/or schedule:

Logging into Canvas - There is NO orientation meeting for this course. Once you log into Canvas please complete ALL components of the Course Navigation module by Wednesday, May 22nd, 2019 at 11:59pmPST to retain your enrollment in the class. Included in the module will be:

1. Read the File called 'Navigating Connect' (located within the Canvas course)
2. Update your profile page to include a picture of yourself
3. Send your instructor a message within Canvas
4. Post to the discussion forum titled "Introduction" and respond to at least 2 students

If you are having difficulty logging into Canvas after May 20th, 2019 and need assistance please email me at dbecker@cuesta.edu. If you have never taken an online class or this is your first experience with Canvas, please be patient with yourself.

Course Overview: MUS 237 is a Music Appreciation course specializing in Rock, specifically surveying the music that is unique to the United States, where it was born. There will be emphasis on the elements of each kind of Rock, the instruments, form, style and how each style of Rock fits into society.

After successful completion of this course, students will:

- Gain a deeper understanding of musical styles, forms and influential artists that have contributed to the soundscape of rock music
- Increase active listening skills by focusing attention on various musical concepts such as melody, rhythm, harmony, texture and tone color
- Analyze stylistic tools that convey emotion
- Gain a greater understanding of the cultural influences on rock music and rock musicians

Please purchase your textbook early in an effort not to miss the first assignments.

Is Online Instruction for YOU? Cuesta College has a strong desire for all students to be successful in their educational endeavors. In an effort to assist the online student, Cuesta College's Distance Links to an external site. Education home page Links to an external site. provides a solid overview to distance education and resources to assist the online student. I recommend that you take the "Self Assessment Survey" Links to an external site. (if that survey does NOT describe you, then taking this class online is NOT for you and I strongly suggest that you drop the online class and enroll in a traditional classroom section.

Online Communication: Most of our communication for the online class will be through the written word. Please use the same respect and courtesy you would when speaking to a classmate or instructor in a face-to-face class. You may notice that the written word sometimes comes across harsher and you may be at a loss as to how to communicate a point. A term which may be new to you is Netiquette which refers to Internet etiquette please visit <http://www.albion.com/netiquette/corerules.html> Links to an external site. for further explanation.

Course offered using Canvas: This online course will be using a Web-based Learning Management System Canvas as the method to disseminate information. Canvas provides the framework for the MUS 237 class including PowerPoint presentations, student data files, the tools to receive and send course materials, and a grade book. Using the communication tools, you can communicate using e-mail, and you can share materials and ideas with other course participants via the discussion forums and group. Please check out the instructor's website in the meantime: davebeckermusic.com
