Astonishing Transformation of the Once Backward Land of Harans, Veils and Fezzezos Into an Up-to-Date, Progressive Nation Where the Men Wield Fountain Pens Instead of Scimitars and Young Women Go to Business and Dance and The Charleston
Dressed Quite Like Our Own Flappers.

In centuries-long sleep.

The picture above shows two women of the Kaffirs, who have long been looked upon as a savage and barbarous race, in the midst of a performance of the Charleston dance, which is exactly the same as that performed by our own modern flappers. The picture below was taken in the same city, and shows a man and woman of the Kaffirs, who have learned to smoke cigarettes. They are dressed in the latest American styles and are seen shopping in one of the finest department stores in the city. The transformation of the Kaffirs from a savage and barbarous race to a modern and progressive nation has been truly remarkable. The Kaffirs have learned to read, write, and speak the English language, and are now able to understand and appreciate the latest fashions and styles. They have also learned to drive automobiles and to use the latest appliances in their homes. The transformation of the Kaffirs has been due to the efforts of the missionaries who have worked among them, and to the influence of the Western world. The Kaffirs are now among the most advanced and progressive races in Africa.
