Co-requisites: None
Textbook & Other Course Materials
ISBN: 9781305258983. No Online Access Codes Required

Technology Requirements
Canvas is a required component of this course. Students unfamiliar with Canvas are expected to complete the Student Orientation course located in Canvas within the first week of classes.

See the LSSC student Technology Help Desk website for more information on how to obtain Microsoft Office 365 as a LSSC student.

Major writing assignments need to be created and saved in a file format that is compatible with Microsoft Word. If using a word processing program other than Word, it is the student’s responsibility to adhere to all formatting and submission requirements. Please ask for help if you are unsure how to save a file in a Word-compatible format.

Course Student Learning Outcomes
The following outcomes will be assessed in this course. An “outcome” is defined as something students take with them beyond this course. After successful completion of this course, the student will:

1) Demonstrate an understanding of the breadth of the concept of culture.
2) Explain how humans have changed biologically and culturally over time.
3) Interpret the basic theories and methods of anthropology.

Course Objectives
Objectives are defined as what the course will do and/or what the students will do as part of the course.

This course examines humanity and material cultures through the multiple subfields of anthropology. You will learn how humans have evolved biologically, linguistically, and culturally over time through a variety of case studies from locations across the world. Throughout the course you will also learn how to apply anthropological methods and theories within different sectors of the broader non-academic workforce.

Institutional Policies & Procedures

Academic Integrity:
The successful functioning of the academic community demands honesty, which is the basis of respect for both ideas and persons. In the academic community, there is an ongoing assumption of academic integrity at all levels. There is the expectation that work will be independently thoughtful and responsible as to its sources of information and inspiration. Honesty is an appropriate consideration in other ways as well, including but not limited to the responsible use of library resources, responsible conduct in examinations, and the responsible use of the Internet. See the college catalog for complete statement.
Important Information for Students with Disabilities:

Any student with a documented disability who requires assistance or academic accommodations should contact the Student Accessibility Services immediately to discuss eligibility. The Student Accessibility Services (SAS) is located on the Leesburg Campus, but arrangements can be made to meet with a student on any campus. An appointment can be made by calling 352-365-3589 and specific information about SAS and potential services can be found at Student Accessibility Services.

Privacy Policy (FERPA):

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) (20 U.S.C. § 1232g; 34 CFR Part99) is a Federal law that protects the privacy of a student’s education records. In order for your information to be released, a form must be signed, and in your records, located in the Admissions/Registrar’s Office.

Zero-Tolerance for Violence Statement:

Lake-Sumter State College has a policy of zero tolerance for violence as stated in College Board Rule 2.17. Appropriate disciplinary action will be taken in accordance with Board Rule 2.17.

LSSC Safety Statement:

Lake-Sumter State College values the safety of all campus community members. If you have an emergency, call 911. Otherwise, to report a concern, suspicious activity, or to request a courtesy escort, call Campus Safety:

(352) 516-3795 Leesburg
(352) 536-2143 South Lake
(352) 303-7296 Sumter

LSSC also has a free safety app, Lake-Sumter Safe, that is available for download. You will receive important emergency alerts and safety messages regarding campus safety via LSSC Alert. You are opted into this system when you become a LSSC student. For more information regarding safety and to view available resources, visit the Campus Safety web page.

Attendance/Withdrawal Policies:

Initial Attendance:
Initial attendance will be entered at the end of the second week of the semester/mini-mester. A student who has not met initial attendance requirements will be marked as “not-attending” and administratively withdrawn from the class. The withdrawn student is still financially responsible for the class. See the college catalog for more details.

Withdrawal:
Once the Add/Drop period passes, students deciding to discontinue class attendance and/or online participation have the responsibility for formal withdrawal by the withdrawal deadline.

Withdrawal Deadline: March 29th, 2021
Instructor Policies

Classroom Etiquette:

Diversity statement: The instructor will foster an environment that values the discussion of multiple viewpoints. After all, humans are very diverse in many ways. Students may not agree with all the thoughts discussed in class. However, students will respect the views of others and debate topics in the class in a civil and respectful manner. The instructor will not tolerate remarks or discrimination based on age, color, disability, ethnicity, gender, national origin, race, religion, or sexual orientation.

Attendance and Reading: Students are expected to complete all reading assignments and read through all PowerPoint lessons. The lessons present some material not covered in the texts, while some of the readings also present some material not covered in lessons.

Makeup examinations: None will be given except in the case of a documented illness or emergency. Travel plans do not constitute a valid excuse for missing an exam.

Late Work Policy:

Quizzes and discussion posts may not be completed late. Papers will not be accepted past three days after the due date; they will be docked one letter grade for each day they are late.

Plagiarism Statement:

Plagiarism will not be tolerated and the instructor uses tools to detect plagiarism for all class assignments. Upon the first detection of plagiarism, the instructor will use a formal written warning, while he will also issue an assignment grade of zero for intentional plagiarism. The second case of plagiarism will incur a grade of zero for the assignment and an incident report filed with the college. The third case of plagiarism will incur a failing grade for the course.
